Jim Bond presented the treasurer's report.

Current primary and secondary roads in the Winter Access plan were discussed.

Brandon King presented a plan to include Fisherman creek as an approved secondary road.

Pros and cons followed Brandon's presentation, with safety of residents traveling the plowed road being the main concern.

Brandon agreed to follow all rules established in the Winter Access plan for secondary roads.

Four e-mails regarding the plowing of secondary roads were read and issues addressed.

Motion was made by Richard Thomas to include Fisherman creek to 8 Eagle Heart Lane a secondary road. Motion passed.

For the mail HRSID Winter Roads plan, Troy Jerup will be the primary plower. Woody Caldwell and Frederick O'Connor will be secondary plowers.

Winter residents will meet on November 19th to set up snow fences.

Richard Thomas advised all members that parking areas are not intended as storage areas.

All vehicles and trailers need to be moved as needed to allow plowing of parking areas.

Dave Shipeck reminded all that snowmobiling was restricted to public roads.

Pete Teller suggested heavy truck traffic be restricted in the Spring time during the thaw when roads are wet and unstable. HRSID Board will consider this option.

Meeting adjourned.
